

SCHOOLS QUESTION TIME – 16TH DECEMBER 2019

- Has there been a time where you have felt conflicted when delivering a judgement or hearing a case?
- What is the most interesting case you've been involved in?
- What was your drive/inspiration when you decided to go into the law profession?
- No taxation without representation: why was it acceptable for 16 and 17-year olds to vote in the Scottish referendum and yet 16 and 17-year olds cannot vote in England?
- Do you think it is easier to judge without a codified constitution or harder and would you prefer if we had one in the UK?
- The law is a very competitive field, as aspiring lawyers, what can we start doing now to set us apart in our future?
- Are the challenges you have faced as a woman entering the legal world, still present today?
- Have you ever faced any discrimination within your position as a judge, or your career path to becoming a judge? How did you overcome this?
- When researching cases that mirror yours that have been previously decided- How do you access these previous cases? Where do you start?
- When you were our age (14/15) what careers path did you see yourself following?
- What is the hardest part of your job?