QB-2021-000893

ORDER

UPON the Claimant's Application Notice issued on 12 March 2021

AND UPON consideration of the Claimant's Article 8 right to respect for private and family life and the Article 10 right of freedom of expression.

AND UPON IT APPEARING that the case is likely to attract publicity and that revealing the identity of the Claimant is likely unfairly to damage the interests of the Claimant and that, accordingly, publication of details revealing the Claimant's identity ought to be prohibited

AND PURSUANT to s11 Contempt of Court Act 1981 and CPR Rule 5.4A to 5.4D and CPR Rule 39.2(4) and the inherent jurisdiction of the court.

BY CONSENT IT IS ORDERED that:

1. There be substituted for all purposes of this case, in place of references to the Claimant, and whether orally or in writing, references to the letters "NXA".
2. There be substituted for all purposes of this case, in place of references to the Claimant's Father and Litigation Friend, and whether orally or in writing, reference to the letters "HXA".
3. There be substituted for all purposes of this case, in place of references to the Claimant's Mother, who will be a key witness in this claim, and whether orally or in writing, reference to the letters "DXA".
4. To the extent necessary to protect the Claimant's and his parents' identities, any other references, whether to persons or places or otherwise, be adjusted appropriately, with permission to the parties to apply in default of agreement as to the manner of such adjustments.

5. So far as the claim form, or any judgment or order, or any other document to which anyone might have access pursuant to CPR Rule 5.4A-D at any time does not comply with the above, the Claimant's solicitor has leave to file with the court copies of such document adjusted so as to comply therein. Such copies are to be treated for all purposes as being in substitution for the relevant originals; and the originals are then to be retained by the court and/or on HMCTS e-filing service system and noted that they should: "not to be opened or accessed without the permission of a Judge or Master of the Queen's Bench Division".
6. A non-party may not obtain any copy statement of case or other document from the court file unless it has been edited (anonymised) in accordance with this direction.
7. Reporting restrictions apply as to the disclosing of any information that may lead to the subsequent identification of the Claimant or either of his parents.
8. The Claimant has permission to issue the claim form giving the address of his solicitors in place of his residential address. A copy of the claim form with the Claimant's full name and address is to be placed on file and/or HMCTS e-filing system noted: "not to be opened or accessed without the permission of a Judge or Master of the Queen's Bench Division".
9. That any non-party affected by this Order may apply on notice to all parties to have this Order set aside or varied
10. Costs in the case.

Dated this 29th day of March 2021
